Introduce Your Children To The Magic Of Theater!

Camp Theater! is a summer drama camp that immerses students in interactive and educational theater-based activities. Camp Theater! is a unique opportunity for students to work with and learn from Great Lakes Theater's professional teaching artists in a fun, safe and supportive environment.

Half and full day classes will be held at Berea-Midpark High School in one-week sessions from Monday through Friday. Students may enroll in one or both weeklong sessions, as different material will be covered each week. The program is designed for students of all levels of experience and ability. There is no audition required. Classes will be divided by students' respective ages. The drama camp features classes in acting, Shakespeare, movement, improvisation, stage combat, mask making and much more!

When School Is Out, Shakespeare Is In!

Kid Classics

Ages: 4-5

Kid Classics camp is a great way to introduce your little ones to Shakespeare and other classic stories. Each day a new story will be introduced using theater exercises, movement, music and crafts that are inspired by the themes and ideas in these timeless tales.
9:30 am—10:30 am / Camp Fee: $65 per week

Groundlings

Ages: 6-8

Groundlings spend the first hour with the Kid Classic team and then expand on their discoveries. Campers will use improvisation and story telling techniques to bring classic literature to life. They will discover confidence and a new means of expression as they uncover their own unique talents and abilities.
9:30 am—12:00 pm* / Camp Fee: $160 per week

Jesters and Fools

Ages: 9-11

Working with scenes and monologues from Shakespeare and other classic drama, campers will bring literature's greatest characters to life.

The camp includes fun theater games, characterization work and acting exercises.
9:30 am—3:00 pm† / Camp Fee: $225 per week

Upstart Crows

Ages: 12-13

Upstart Crows will explore professional theatrical rehearsal techniques, intended to produce deeper, more meaningful performances in a fun, friendly and supportive environment. Techniques include improvisation, stage combat and a close reading of classic text.
9:30 am—3:00 pm † / Camp Fee: $225 per week

Rude Mechanicals

Ages: 14-18

Designed for the beginner, as well as the advanced acting student, campers will continue the exploration of professional theatrical techniques, including text analysis and character development. Campers will also explore audition techniques, stage combat, and voice and movement.
9:30 am—3:00 pm† / Camp Fee: $225 per week

LISTEN TO CAMPER PARENTS IN THEIR OWN WORDS...

"Clara loves Camp Theater. She says it's fun and she feels comfortable with everyone. I've never seen her love a camp as much as she does this one! As a mother, that makes me feel wonderful! Thank you so very much."

Eileen, a parent

"We love you guys and the camp is phenomenal. We hope we can continue attending next summer as we know how much Bella loves it! Keep up the great work."

Alexandria, a parent

"Ava absolutely LOVED, LOVED, LOVED all the staff members! They were all amazing!"

Kristy, a parent

* Campers will perform a short scene of a classic story for parents and invited guests on Friday at 11:45 am.

† Campers will perform Flash Scenes for parents and invited guests on Friday at 2:30 pm.

All Full day campers: Bring a bag lunch/drink to eat in the Berea-Midpark High School cafeteria.
